

The Griffin Family of Ancaster, Upper Canada

Guest Speaker Daryl MacTavish The Griffin Family of Ancaster, Upper Canada

Thursday February 8, 2024

Join the Grimsby Historical Society as we celebrate Black History Month.

Daryl MacTavish has worked for the City of Hamilton's Historic House Museums for the past 38 years. He enjoys helping bring history alive to visitors, trying to make the lifestyle and choices people made back then, understandable to people today, in a hopefully informative and entertaining way. Daryl lives in a brick home built in 1887, in the Historic Corktown neighbourhood, that is filled with what some may describe as, "too many books" and he collects antique autographs.

The presentation will focus on how Eneals Griffin became a Freedom Seeker, his life in Ancaster and how he became a respected member of the Farming Community. It will also include a look inside of his home.
